- Ensures that Ojibwe language and culture is infused into all classrooms and learning environments.
- Implement departmental and organizational policies and procedures.
- Works to develop and implement the culture and language operational plan, ensuring alignment with department and organization-wide strategic directives.
- Oversees and manages the day-to-day operations of the language and culture program.
- Ensures effective and efficient delivery of services in alignment with policies and procedures, relevant legislation, and professional standards.
- Liaise with other tribal departments, community groups, organizations, and relevant stakeholders regarding language and culture programming.
- Oversees the development and implementation of Ojibwe language and culture curriculum within the K-12 education system.
- Assists with the Eminence Credentialing process for Ojibwe language and culture teachers.
- Develops program and organizational policies and procedures related to language and culture.
- Directs program staff in maintaining appropriate fiscal controls to ensure operations are within the scope of the annual budget.
- Supports the allocation of funds and forecasting.
- Ensures program activities are in compliance with policies, procedures, and legal standards.
- Serves in Administrative capacity in the absence of the K-12 Principal.
- Builds the capacity of program staff by implementing processes for orientation, training, and performance appraisal.
- Serves as a role model and mentor regarding the organization's values and leadership principles.
- Collaborates with Elders, Knowledge Keepers, and language speakers to document and pass on language and traditional knowledge
- Plans and organizes cultural events, workshops, and land-based education and practices, such as seasonal camps.
- Promotes language and cultural learning opportunities within the community.
- Assists with the development of promotional materials and marketing initiatives.

Knowledge, Skills & Abilities:

- Strong knowledge of Indigenous history with formalized education systems, residential schools, and on-going inter-generational effects specific to education, social programming, and White Earth Nation's history, cultural practices, and values
- Ability to communicate in the Ojibwe Language (fluency not required)
- Knowledge of current issues facing Indigenous communities, including cultural preservation, land rights, language revitalization and best practices, as well as pedagogical approaches and legislative movements.
